

Registered Nurse for Immigration Holding Centre

Calian is building a team of Registered Nurses for a new facility in Surrey. As a Registered Nurse on the team, you are responsible for providing 24/7 nursing services to a wide range of individuals with a wide range of medical and mental health concerns.

Supporting infection control measures and educating detainees on public health issues is a primary function of this role. You will administer medication, respond to emergencies and assist in running clinics with the visiting Physicians, Psychiatrists and Psychologists. Registered Nurse are part of the primary healthcare resource for the detainees and are responsible for providing support to individuals of all ages.

This role is well suited to a Registered Nurse who can working autonomously within their scope of practice. We are looking for Registered Nurses who are available to work a mix of shifts including days, nights and weekends.

Qualifications:

- Be licensed and in good standing with the British Columbia College of Nursing Professionals
- Have minimum 3 years of experience as a Registered Nurse
- Must be certified in Advanced Cardiovascular Life Support (ACLS)

Type of assignment:

Contract

Full Time and Casual

Contact:

Sarah Kenny, Recruiter

s.kenny@calian.com

877-225-4264 x2374

www.calian.com