

PAIN NAVIGATOR

Posting Date: July 9 2019
Closing Date: September 30, 2019
Job Title: Pain Navigator
Job Location: Vancouver
Start Date: Flexible – immediate need
Apply To: Dr. Lindsay Rite, lrite@changepain.ca

CHANGEpain, an interdisciplinary community-based pain clinic, is seeking to expand our Pain Navigator Role at our Vancouver based team.

Who are we?

CHANGEpain is a passionate community of pain experts inspired by our vision to create the best place to change pain where people feel safe, are heard and believed, and are empowered with skills that support their own healing. We offer a blend of MSP, extended care and private pay services to reduce the development of chronic pain before it happens and find ways to alleviate it when it impacts quality of life.

Who are you?

You are a dynamic, compassionate, and detail-orientated individual. You thrive in a collaborative team setting and are passionate about guiding and inspiring others to optimize their health. You are interested in personal growth and professional development and want to become an integral part of a truly integrated health team.

Qualifications: Registered Nurse, Clinical Nurse Specialist or Registered/Certified Occupational Therapist

Find out more: Please see the full job description and details on how to apply on our website:
<https://www.changepain.ca/join-us>